By Telegraph.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 14.
BURLINGTON, Jan. 18.
Advice from Eastern sources to yesterday say, Col. Ludlow from City Point says all commanding officers of the United States troops after the 12th of January will be handed over to the governments of the States where captured. He says it is highly probable that all officers captured before the 12th will be released.

There was a large number of Mississippi prisoners now at Richmond.

Wednesday the rebels captured the steamer Hastings containing wounded and prisoners. They stripped the wounded of all their clothing.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.
The Times Washington dispatch speaking of the Army of the Potomac says for some days it has been known that a movement was again in contemplation, and it might be that the loyal troops would not be many hours behind the rebels in knowing that our veterans are again on the road to Richmond.

Unless some unexpected cause should induce Gen. Butler will be induced to resume command of the Dept. of the South as soon as arrangements can be made providing another command for Gen. Burnside in his division.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 17.
The Free publishers' dispatch from Nashville dated yesterday, that the rebels had captured five steamers besides the gunboat Shiloh in the Cumberland River, of which they burn.

Gen. Longstreet with 12 rebel brigades from Lee's army at Fredericksburg, had arrived at Chancellorsville and was making preparations to attack Gen. Hooker, which it was said he would do next week.

The Rebels of Tennessee announced that a large force of Federal gunboats transports were coming up the Mississippi river.

These hurried despatches from rebel agents arrived at Memphis.

New York, Jan. 18.
The Tribune correspondent after describing an amount of the fight on the day of the Harrisburg, says, since the date last struck down were the gallant Cava. Wm. Wright and Lt. Col. Lee, who had fought the rebels with a desperation and vigor that no man could surpass.

He saw these bleeding and penetrated upon the decks still dashing death among their enemies. The young son of Capt. Wright, ten years old, at the main deck with the most desperate bravery, though severely wounded, stood by his father until the last moment.
